ORAL HISTORY WORKSHOP AT THE PETERBOROUGH CENTENNIAL MUSEUM & ARCHIVES

The Peterborough Centennial Museum & Archives is hosting a one-night workshop on how to conduct Oral History interviews with Community Elders. Learn how to capture and preserve family and community stories for future generations to enjoy.

Join Sharon Gubbay-Helfer, Ph.D., as she introduces the practices and promise of oral history as well as such basic skills as how to get started; what equipment to use; how to put the person your are interviewing at ease; and what questions you should ask.

The event will take place October 11th, 2007 from 7-9pm with a cost of $10 per person.

This workshop is presented in partnership with the Ontario Jewish Archives, a department of the UJA Federation of Greater Toronto and funded by the Ontario Trillium Foundation.

The Peterborough Centennial Museum & Archives is located on top of Armour Hill on Museum Drive, Hunter Street East, Peterborough, Ontario.
