MARCH BREAK CHILDREN'S CAMPS

The Children's March Break programs are back at the Peterborough Museum & Archives. There are four great half-day programs for children in arts, crafts, science, drama, and fun!

WORLD TOUR, Tuesday, March 11 with Teresa Rigg. Take a whirlwind trip around the world. Take a half-day trip or bring your lunch and spend the whole day!

SNOWSNAKES & STORYTELLING, Wednesday, March 12 with Amy Barron. Celebrate Native American Culture with crafts, story telling and maple syrup treats.

ARCHAEOLOGY FOR KIDS, Thursday, March 13 with Dave Cox. Learn how archaeologists work. Excavate artifacts, reassemble objects, and learn about the past.

DRAMATIC DISCOVERIES, Friday, March 14 with Ray Henderson. Develop a script- create your character and choose your costumes in a dramatic experience for the budding star.

The programs run from March 11 to 14, 2008, for children ages 5-10 (depending on program). Morning programs are from 9am to noon, and in the afternoon from 1 to 4pm. Registration is open either by phone 705-743-5180 with credit card or in person. Cost is $15 per child for a half-day.

The Peterborough Museum & Archives is located in Ashburnham Memorial Park on Museum Drive, Hunter Street East, Peterborough, Ontario.

Admission is by donation and the museum is open weekdays: 9 am to 5 pm, and weekends & holidays: noon to 5 pm. The PCMA offers barrier-free access, scenic picnic facilities and plenty of free parking.
