2009 MARCH BREAK CHILDREN'S CAMPS

The Children's March Break programs are back at the Peterborough Museum & Archives. There are five great full-day programs for children in arts, crafts, science, drama, and fun!

Monday, March 16, 2009 Science & Art

for Senior Kindergarten to Grade 6 with Cheri Verge

Link art techniques to the world around us, using really cool art materials to make striking crafts!

Tuesday, March 17, 2009 World Tour

for Grade 1 to 4 with Teresa Rigg

Tour the world with games, crafts, food and activities from every continent on the planet!

Wednesday, March 18, 2009 Pirates & Mermaids

for Senior Kindergarten to Grade 6 with Cheri Verge

Avast mateys! Set sail with the Pirate Queen for a day of seafaring arts and crafts on a voyage to Treasure Island.

Thursday, March 19, 2009 Trash to Treasure

for Senior Kindergarten to Grade 6 with Cheri Verge

Recycle those items headed for the landfill! Create sculpture, storage and art pieces by crafting "Green".

Friday, March 20, 2009 Dramatic Discoveries

for Senior Kindergarten to Grade 6 with Ray Henderson

Join Ray for a new adventure play where fantastic characters are brought to life and presented in a real play for a real audience (parents invited!) in just a few hours.

Programs run from 9 AM to 4 PM. Please bring a lunch and snacks, (peanut-free) and dress for the weather! $30 per program, pre-registration required. Call 705.743.5180.

The Peterborough Museum & Archives is located in Ashburnham Memorial Park on Museum Drive, 300 Hunter Street East, Peterborough, Ontario.

Admission is by donation and the museum is open weekdays: 9 am to 5 pm, and weekends & holidays: noon to 5 pm. The Museum offers barrier-free access, scenic picnic facilities and plenty of free parking.
