

New Exhibitions Opening at the Peterborough Museum & Archives

The Peterborough Museum & Archives is pleased to announce the opening of its new exhibitions, “Get To Work! How Industry Shaped Peterborough,” and “Backwoods to Boomtown: Victorian Peterborough.”

“Get To Work! How Industry Shaped Peterborough,” celebrates local industrial development during the 20th Century. The exhibition also explores how world events over the course of the century impacted the city, and how industry and the community adapted to the times.

“Get to Work” opens on March 28, 2009 and continues to June 21, 2009.

“Backwoods to Boomtown: Victorian Peterborough” an exciting update to the Victorian Gallery, highlights Peterborough’s growth and change during the Victorian era.

“Backwoods” opens on April 4, 2009. Both new exhibitions were created by the Museum Management and Curatorship students from Fleming College in partnership with the Peterborough Museum & Archives.

All are welcome to attend a public reception to celebrate both exhibitions on Friday, April 17, 2009 from 4 pm to 7 pm at the Peterborough Museum & Archives, Ashburnham Memorial Park, Museum Drive, 300 Hunter Street East, Peterborough.

The Museum’s regular hours are Monday to Friday 9 am to 5 pm; Weekends and Holidays 12 noon to 5 pm. Admission is by donation, barrier-free access and free parking.
