Leaving Home with Peter Robinson

WHEN I FIRST CAME TO THIS LAND

When I first came to this land, I was not a wealthy man
So I got myself a shack, I did what I could
And I called my shack, "Break my back"
But the land was sweet and good, I did what I could

When I first came to this land, I was not a wealthy man,
So I got myself a farm, I did what I could
And I called my farm, "Muscle in my arm"
And I called my shack, "Break my back"
But the land was sweet and good, I did what I could similarly:

horse, "Lame of course"
cow, "No milk now"
duck, "Out of luck"
donkey, "Horse gone Wonky"
wife, "Run for your life"
son, "My work done"

GUITAR ACCOMPANIMENT:

D                  G       D
When I first came to this land

 G       D       A7     D
 I was not a wealthy man

             G        D
 So I got myself a shack

  A7      D      D
 I did what I could. . . And

     G          D      A7         D
I called my shack Break my back

 D                  G          D
But the land was sweet and good,

      G       A7       D
 and I did what I could
```
